

RhythmSong

25th to 28th August, 2011

Residential music retreat at Grass Roots Holiday Haven in Jarrahdale. Fabulous opportunity to become immersed in an atmosphere of music and learning for four days with outstanding tutors and guest artists. Group singing, songwriting, performance skills, small instrument hand percussion, African style body percussion, creative play, vocal technique, blues improvisation, concerts, yoga and more..... (15+)

Carl Pannuzzo

Carl is an outstanding songwriter and multi-instrumentalist (voice, piano, guitar, bass, drums, tuned percussion and harp) and a member of numerous groups including an evocative duo with the beautiful Penny Larkins and the crazy gourd based band 'Totally Gourdgeous'. A highly sought after choir and workshop facilitator and nourisher of the creative in himself and others.

Parissa Bouas

Parissa is an accomplished singer, voice coach, songwriter, workshop facilitator and choir leader. With Carl Cleves she performs in award winning duo The Hottentots and also fronts her vibrant Latin band Diaspora Latina who sing a unique and sensual mix of songs from Latin America, Africa, Cuba, Brasil and Cape Verde. Her musical taste is broad, her passion boundless, and she's noted for the generosity of her teaching.

Jo Jo Smith

Known as Australia's 'Mistress of Groove' Jo Jo Smith is one of Australia's best female vocalists with a voice that is soulful, powerful and passionate and she has a reputation for giving a lot to her audience. Jo Jo is an experienced songwriter and workshop facilitator and at RhythmSong she'll be sharing her songwriting secrets and teaching us to sing with soul and groove.

Marie O'Dwyer

Marie O'Dwyer is a singer songwriter who has performed across Australia for the past 10 years. She weaves classical and jazz studies with world music flavours complimented by an honest and perceptive lyrical prose. She'll be teaching two workshops and sharing her own unique approach to the art of songwriting.

Also look out for special guest tutor Bec Bradley and some outstanding guest artists. RhythmSong will begin on Thursday at 10am with a day dedicated to songwriting and creative play. It is a community music event suitable for beginners and people at all levels of experience.
